

OLVER ANNOUNCES $500,000 FOR HOOSIC RIVER WATERSHED

November 09, 2005

WASHINGTON , Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) announced that the U.S. House of Repre

The funding is included in the FY '06 Energy and Water Appropriations conference report approved by

"The restoration would improve the water quality and environment for fish species, and it would also inc

The overall goal of the Hoosic River Restoration Project in Adams is to restore fisheries and wildlife ha

The Hoosic River is one of the few systems in Massachusetts that still contains a viable self-sustaining

In addition to the town of Adams, the towns of Lanesborough, Cheshire, North Adams and Williamstow

After the Senate approves the conference report, which it is expected to do shortly, it would then go to

###

For additional information, please contact Thomas Matuszko, Assistant Director, Berkshire Regional Pl